ARRAIGN BECKER AGAIN

New York, Aug. 6.—Lieut. Charles Becker will be arraigned for the third time tomorrow on the charge of complicity in the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

Becker has not selected an attorney to defend him. In his two previous hearings he had a different lawyer each time, Robert H. Elder, who appeared for him yesterday, retiring from the case after Becker's plea of not guilty was withdrawn. It is probable that Becker will select either John F. McIntyre or Congressman Martin Littleton.

The frequent criticism of the city judiciary by Police Commissioner Waldo was answered by several of the judges today. Waldo claimed the courts had not cooperated with the police department in suppressing the gamblers.

"I have no hesitancy in saying that there has been more gambling going on since the administration of Mayor Gayner than we have had in the last 25 years. The police, in my opinion, never intended to suppress gambling," said Magistrate Frederick House.

Judge Edward Swan said: "I a mmorally certain that one police inspector, aided by three other inspectors, holds the dominant power in the graft 'system,' and they are guilty of grafting. I am convinced that if these men were removed from the department the 'system' would get its death blow."

No arrests have been made in connection with the Rosenthal murder in the last 24 hours.

CONVENTION HOT SPOTS.

The big doings at the national convention of the Progressive party today was the "confession of faith" speech of Col. Roosevelt.

Roosevelt entered the Coliseum at 12:55 o'clock.

All the delegates were seated by that time and the galleries were packed. There were over 10,000 people in the hall.

Roosevelt's appearance was the signal for a wild demonstration.

Delegates and spectators rose to their feet and howled their approval of their leader.

Red bandana handkerchiefs appeared all over the hall and were waved wildly as their owners yelled: "We want Teddy; we want Teddy."

Roosevelt stood on the platform, grinning broadly and bowing right and left.

Enthusiastic supporters pushed
